the way we will be.

If we had it to do over, would it be different . . .

were quickly forgotten

But it's the laughter beauty and joy we shared that will always be remembered. 1975

HEIDI J. STAPLES

He who follows another is always left behind.
I've had my share of broken dreams,
And more than a couple of falls,
And in chasing what I thought were moonbeams,
I have run into a couple of walls.
But in looking back at the lessons I've learned
And the mountains I've wanted to climb
I just look at myself to find —
I've learned the hard way every time.
But in looking back at the places I've been
I would sure be the first to say —
When I look at myself today,
I wouldn't have done it any other way.

"I'm going out, ma."

"Where?"

"I don't know."

Where did we all end up after these endless conversations? Most likely at one of our famed hang-outs; which was inevitably visited by Shrewsbury's police every hour on the hour. But, did that stop us??? No. Where else could one find such an exciting variety of things to do. You could sit in your car or stand around your car. It really wasn't the places, though, it was the people who made the places so great.

When we look back on our high school days we'll see how we were always short of money because of the rise in the cost of living. $7.00 to $8.00 for a good movie which lasted about one and one half hours. Going out to eat was out of the question, except for the Pancake House, Friendly's, Gino's, or McDonald's. But we will remember these places because of the friends we made and the good times we had. Really, wasn't it all worth it?

was a very good year . . .

. . . it won't be forgotten soon . . .

You're pulling my leg!

The win-loss-tie record of S.H.S.'s soccer team was no indication of how the Colonials played this year. Captained by seniors Tom Caggiano and Tony Jarvis, the team finished in the top five of all Central Massachusetts soccer teams in allowing fewest goals with a brillant 1.7 goals against average. Shrewsbury also placed two seniors on the Midland League All-Star team — fullback Tom Caggiano and halfback A.J. Quitadamo. In postseason action the senior soccer players of both Shrewsbury and St. John's high schools were involved in a first in Mass. high school atheletics. The teams combined their efforts in challenging the Boston College Freshman soccer team and holding them to a 1-1 deadlock after 105 minutes of play.

This years cross-country team, captained by Tom Rooney, Dave Lasorsa and Keith Buffinton fell just short of gaining the Midland League crown. The only blemish to an impressive 8-1 record was a dissapointing loss to Milford by one point.

The key to the teams' success lay in "The Pack," consisting of Buffinton, Lasorsa, Mertzlufft, Whiting, Marcimo, Rooney, Doctor, Ball, and Loomer.

Highlights of the season included a first place finish in the Wachusetts Invitational, Kiwanis, and an outstanding performance in winning the Midland League meet. They also had the honor of qualifying for the Mass. State Meet in Boston.

Field

Field hockey is not played on ice. It is not played with skates. It is not played in winter. It, is not even a man's sport. It is for women. In September. With a stick — a curved stick somewhere between a baseball bat and an ice hockey stick. Action moves up and down a field. The ball being carried at the end of the stick. Ultimately being propelled toward an opponents net for what would be a score.

For 38 dedicated girls field hockey is a way of life from September to November. Their spirits and effort remain undaunted through rain, cold, or humid weather. The girls go through rigerous practices and countless drills to improve their skills.

This year the varsity placed second in Midland League competition with a 7-2-5 record. Their attempt for the coveted District crown proved fruitless as they lost to Grafton in the first round.

However, a second place finish, the many friends and memories made, the self-confidence and pride instilled within each girl made it all worthwhile.

Precision and poise are two words that come to mind when one thinks of gymnastics. The Shrewsbury girls display both of these qualities.

Although they are only in their second year of competition, the girls' ability has been greatly improved as each has gained more confidence and grace in her movements.

The fact that most of their opponents have more experience and are more established teams does not make the girls any less determined. Many freshmen compile the team and they have worked hard to represent Shrewsbury well.

Under the guidance of Ms. Niechwadowicz and Ms. Masterson, Shrewsbury will be a staunch competitor in the coming years.

Old Man Winter officially marked the opening of basketball season and twenty two dedicated girls took to the hardwood.

Although young in experience and somewhat small in stature, these girls made their mark in the basketball circle.

Led by captain Kathy Collins this year's varsity placed second in Midland League competition and earned a seed in the District play-offs.

Team effort, pride, and desire were the major factors for the team's success.

However, the efforts of Coach Judy Webster cannot go unnoticed as without her invaluable knowledge of the game much of the team's success would have been unattainable.
